Message:

I cannot see how redrawing the districts can help insure that all Texans are well represented.
That would be the only justifiable reason for redrawing the lines that I can think of.

Democracy is surely more than a board game with winners and losers.

I would hope that with every action taken by our elected officials they are weighing the ethical considerations of the action and also thinking of every Texas, genuinely working to make sure our democracy is truly representative.

Thank you for listening to my comments.
