Message:

To the Texas Senate Special Committee on Redistricting:

I am writing to firmly oppose gerrymandering and any effort to manipulate redistricting for partisan advantage. These actions undermine our democracy and are clearly intended to silence voters rather than represent them fairly.

Redistricting should serve the people of Texas, not the political ambitions of a party or the orders of a president. It is obvious that this push is not about public service, but about holding onto power by any means necessary. Voters like me are fed up with this kind of political cowardice.

You are not protecting democracy. You are trying to control it. Texans are paying attention, and we will not forget who stood for fair elections and who stood in the way.

Sincerely,
Savannah Martin
