Message:

I ask that you put aside this redistricting political power grab and focus on things that matter to Texans. This Trump-ordered redistricting plan for Texas targets mainly districts represented by people of color. It is a direct attempt to silence the voices of Texas' marginalized communities, from minorities to migrants to LGBTQ families. It is unprecedented and while it may not be illegal, it is certainly unethical and immoral. It seems to violate the Voting Rights Act of 1965 and smells of racism. Texas used to known as the Friendly State, but under decades of GOP control, we are a global joke. The people of Texas are tired of our taxes going up every year, living in fear of being on our own in the event of the next "act of god", and watching our public schools and healthcare crumble under pressure from DC billionaires and pious pedophiles. Who do you think you actually represent?
