Message:

Please consider a commission style approach to redistricting, so all voters have a voice in Texas. We deserve to choose our politicians, not have our politicians choose us. I feel completely disenfranchised as of late and the fragility of our democracy is now on full display. Our systems were supposed to be strong enough and it seems they aren't. The people should at least be able to keep our voice. If other, mostly democrat states, can trust their constituents enough to use a commission, surely the Republican party can do the same. Please consider this before people lose all faith in, not just the GOP, but our entire process.
