Message:

As a Texas citizen I oppose the special session effort to set up an out-of-term redistricting process.

Redistricting Texas mid-decade is an expensive unnecessary power play to unfairly skew voting power through increased gerrymandering.

Voters deserve to have representatives apportioned fairly and current gerrymandering should be outlawed with an independent Redistricting Commission established by the Legislature, rather than this blatant partisan manipulation.

The cost of the special session is pure waste and abuse of taxpayer money used solely for partisan politics and does not serve the public interest.
