Affirm public info: I agree

Regarding: Congressional

Message:

Congressional districts were meant to be defined to represent the people in an area where neighbors with similar concerns are in the same districts.

They should NOT be drawn for political purposes.

While that has happened before, it has never been so blatant.

I VEHEMENTLY disagree with the plan to redistrict with the purpose of getting more Republican seats.

Leave the districts alone now, review them on the regular schedule, and if anything, change them to better represent the people, not the politicians.
