Message:

I, Sydney Kankam (formerly Thomas, not what is on your voter role) wholeheartedly and vehemently disagree with and reject the redrawn congressional districts for the state of Texas. Fair and equitable representation is essential for our communities and democracy as a whole. Texas has long been a bastion of republican power, but this is a blatant and unvarnished power grab. Redistricting should only take place based on populations at the decade mark. I am against this mid decade redistricting. While my immediate community (26th Congressional district-2018 San Marino Ln Lewisville TX 75077) will not be affected, my larger Texas community will be. These actions are an affront to our democracy, and the pride we have in Texas regarding our state freedoms. To willingly give over power and alter our standards at the request of an executive is about the most un-Texan thing I have ever seen. Please refrain.
