Message:

As a woman of voting age in the Dallas county, I am positive I can speak for many, many others when I affirm that Dallas is a blue county. If we want to get further into scale, go ahead and include the Denton county as well. There is no reason that these large quantities of people who share a common belief, neighbors that can come together and feel safe should be broken apart. If it's not broken, don't fix it. Redistricting is going to not only break a somewhat-okay establishment, but there will be no fixing it after large counties have finally been able to speak their voice. You cannot take that away from us.
