Message:

As someone who has lived in Texas since the age of 9 I have had the opportunity to live all over the state. The thing I found is people take pride in being a Texan but something has shifted. People are being stripped of their voice and their right to choose those they feel will represent their needs its democracy at its core. Redistricting to take this away is not representative of the citizens of this great state. We all deserve the best representation in Texas and Washington let's do right by the people of Texas we all deserve to be heard a fair and just election not one made up to represent the republicans. Not only is it not fair it's not legal! Thank you for your attention to this matter.
