Message:

The proposal to redistrict Texas is an act against its own, regardless of political party. As a lifelong Texan and new voter, I vehemently oppose this proposition. Under the new districts there is stronger shut downs on the equality of people's vote. Do not disguise this idea as anything more than ruthless gerrymandering to continue the oppression of the communities voice. Those who proposed these new areas are fearful of the voice of the people, it's obvious. Lifelong conservatives and liberals can both agree that these new districts would further restrict all people of Texas. Do not accept this, do not allow this feudal attempt to silence those in need win. The public does not want this. Do not redistrict Texas
