Regarding: Congressional

Message:

The congressional redistricting proposed by Trump and Abbott is blatant gerrymandering that disproportionately affects black and brown community members of Houston. There is a clear lack of care and lack of democracy shown to the members of the community to further the government's own gain and Texans will not continue to stand and watch their voices be drowned out. I urge you to do your job and listen to the people you serve. You may be able to do the easy thing and build yourself up, but there will be no community behind you once you do.
