I am so tired of white supremacy and racism throughout Texas and America and we see through all the BS and if you don't know already, you don't mess with Texas and the big cities are blue only because Democrats at least don't purposely try and take our voices away and strip our rights away under the constitution agreed to make women second class citizens over political beliefs versus what the Texans believe Greg Abbott, Ted Cruz, Dan, Patrick and every single one of these GOP politicians are terrible leaders. They've done a terrible job and the only reason they're in the position they are is because they lie, cheat and steal and it's pathetic and we're better than this as Texas. We do not bend the knee just because of a party. We are here to represent the United States and the constitution and democracy and uphold that democracy, and that means to fight for our right to be heard and understood. it is 2025 and this ideology of thinking that we're back in 1936 is not gonna work. Trump is old and crazy and a rapist felon and the fact that our Texas Republican Party wants to continue to follow this loser and ruin everything America has built thus far when it comes to being diverse and inclusive and equitable here we are women are second class. Citizens are hard-working neighbors who are Mexican are being deported as if they're criminals when they're not, and now we have to on top of everything benefits taken away here in Tarrant county there has been no housing assistance for years, even though we went through a pandemic and everything and people are still struggling from that republican party of Texas has done nothing to help the Texans but boy oh boy, let's pass some school vouchers to help the rich people save money let's give them discounts let's give them such subsidies. Everything is for the games for the rich and not for the poor. We're working poor because you do not raise minimum wage not because we're not working. We don't get enough for the hours that we work. I demand you to look in the mirror and recognize the only reason you're in the seat you're in is because you lied and you cheated and you stole people's voices who should have the right to say how they feel because that is our first amendment. Corporations, billionaires, and rich politicians should not be in control of anything if they're not looking out for the people because it's the people's nation not the corporations or the billionaires nation the politicians keep forgetting who the hell they work for and I am sick and tired of this racist bullshit, and dividing the people when we know it's really up versus down the rich versus poor constantly systematically choosing to keep the people down laws are designed for the poor because the rich can afford to get out of them crimes you lock people up you continue to terrorize people every single way you possibly can you overtax underpay no benefits. What is it? Our government is doing for us, besides taking our rights away and making our fucking lives challenging every goddamn day I'm a woman who doesn't even wanna have a child to bring in this disgusting world because a man who can rape and hurt a woman, psychologically, and physically gets less punishment than a woman who has a miscarriage and who may have to get an abortion order to save her life and because you're uneducated idiots you want to sit here and take away a procedure that helps save women's lives and if a woman is getting an abortion, it's usually not because they want to. It's because they have to in order to save their life. My father was bedridden for 15 years almost and we had to fight Medicaid and Medicare and every insurance company associated with them who even committed crimes by lying with the doctor and forging documents all because they were trying to not provide healthcare to my father or ambulance rides, etc. they caused him to pass away. The system is broken and the only way to fix it is to start listening to the people because we know what needs to be done. We know how our tax paying money should be allocated obviously Our nation doesn't because they are in the biggest deficit ever and don't know how to budget a fucking bank account put the women in charge. We are the only ones that can fix it. Men have been in charge all these centuries and look at where we are at as a human species. We are constantly hurting and murdering women while men get to get away with committing the most crimes and hurting our world, whether it's the planet or the people. Men are the problem. They've continued to be the problem and it's always women who have to try and fight and protect ourselves and the children, and at least the good men cause we know there are some good men out there. Texans do not want gerrymandering Texans want equality when it comes to everyone's voices being heard and if majority is minority, then that means we need to have more seats to represent those voices not more white men, voices or white women who just follow along like little puppies without a voice of their own! FDT FGOP OF TEXAS THIS IS NOT MY TEXAS MY TEXAS WOULD DO BETTER AND BE BETTER THAN THIS. WE HELP MY NEIGHBORS AND LOVE ONE ANOTHER AND UPLIFT EACH OTHER AND THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IS DOING EVERYTHING OPPOSITE.
