Message:

I, like most Texans, do not support this redistricting plan.

It's not just unfair—it's illegal. This is a calculated effort to divide communities of color and dilute our voices at the ballot box. According to the 2020 Census, 95% of Texas' population growth came from communities of color—95%!—yet these same communities are being sliced and silenced through gerrymandered maps that keep political power in the hands of a few.

Texans deserve better. We deserve a redistricting process that reflects our state's true diversity, not one that undermines it. We need an Independent Redistricting Commission—one that puts people over politics and draws district maps in a fair, transparent, and representative way.

We're not asking for a favor. We're demanding democracy.
