Message:

I am writing to express my strong opposition to the current redistricting plan in Texas. This plan undermines the principle of fair and equal representation by creating districts that are clearly gerrymandered to favor one political party over others. By manipulating district boundaries in this way, the redistricting process dilutes the power of voters, particularly in communities of color, and prevents them from having an equal voice in elections.

The new district lines fracture communities and ignore natural geographic and social boundaries, resulting in less effective representation for voters. This undermines public trust in the democratic process and leads to less accountable governance. I urge you to revise the redistricting plan to ensure fair and equitable representation for all Texans, regardless of political affiliation or demographic background.

Thank you for your attention to this important issue.
