Message:

I am strongly opposed to the voting districts being redrawn outside of the regular schedule for the sole purpose of trying to pick up seats for either party which is very obviously the goal based on the comments of President Trump. We should be able to have faith that we live in democratic and representative State but this effort shows that it's more about power than the people who should be represented. I feel the lines are already drawn in a gerrymandered way and redrawing them again, now, with the stated goal of picking up Republican seats takes away the voice of many Texans who deserve representation. Just play fair and win on your policy positions not by putting your thumb on the scale.
