Message:

To alter the Congressional Districts in Texas at this time smacks of GOP partisanship. The maps are usually redrawn after a census.

This is an undemocratic act. I fear that this will break down any sense of fair play redrawing districts where the residents are not duly represented. Our great country is built on sharing ideas and compromising to move forward empowering our citizens with rule of law.

To change up a district will simply cut out the voice of people who have a right to representation.

This may be the end of any bipartisanship. Governor Abbott is simply doing the bidding of unhinged, power hungry Trump
