Message:

There is NO new data to support this mid-term redistricting effort. The only reason this is being considered is because the Trump administration knows their policies are unpopular and they are afraid they will lose control of the House of Representatives in the 2026 election. This is a huge waste of my tax payer dollars, especially at a time when focus should be on the victims of the recent floods in Texas. You should be using this special session to up with a state plan for future extreme weather events since the federal government and FEMA are refusing to assist. Stop the nonsense and get to work for TEXANS!
