Message:

Congressional districts are supposed to designed in a way that allows for the representative to reasonably REPRESENT the district. I have been very disturbed by plans that have been floated showing the obvious cracking of cities, that are connected to far flung towns. The political intent is clear to anyone- and it is insulting to be so craven as to openly admit that this is to give political power to politicians who do not even live in Texas. You are robbing Texans of the ability to be reasonably represented- our constitutional right.
