Message:

As a Texan and Austin resident, I greatly oppose the redistricting of our great state so that republicans can gain more congressional seats. If they are afraid of losing elections, which is the reason why they are doing this (and we all know this), then it's time to rethink their policies. Republicans are hurting Texans with their current policies, and Texans are getting fed up with it. This is a power grab that the President of the United States ordered our local politicians to do and they are bending the knee to a man who wants to be a dictator. Grow a spine, create good policies that help ALL Texans, and stop gerrymandering our state.
