Message:

I ask that you not revise US Congressional Districts. Our districts are already subjected to extensive gerrymandering, and we should not make it worse. A majority of Texans also oppose this action. In fact, most Texans favor an independent redistricting commission to set district boundaries. According to a recent survey by the University of Houston (<https://uh.edu/hobby/tx2025/reforms.pdf>), 77% of Texans support an independent redistricting commission, including 74% of Republicans.
This action would only further erode people's trust in the integrity of our elections.
Thank you.
