Affirm public info: I agree

Regarding: Congressional

Message:

Although my senate district is not in the crosshair for being changed by the redistricting, i am very concerned. That a midterm redistricting is being pushed by a far-away political dictator who has not shown much concern about the plight of the families impacted by the fires in west Texas last year or the floods in central Texas this year gives me pause. Those are the issues that the Senate needs to be focused on, not redistricting.

But if redistricting is the primary objective of this special legislative session, then pass my complete objection to any change to the current congressional map. Unless of course the Republican Party wants to lose Congressman Brian Babin, because I will do my best to see that he is not re-elected because of the action of my state elected officials.

Please pass this information along to my Senator Robert Nichols.
