Message:

I am concerned about the congressional redistricting occurring now here in Texas.

With our State reeling from the tragic loss of so many lives from recent floods, Texans should be seeing caring consideration from their government, not an unjustified congressional redistricting.

This untimely redistricting is intentionally directed at disenfranchising communities of color, i.e. African Americans, Latino, and Asian Americans.

Appointing an independent redistricting commission would be a solution to ensure all Texans get fair representation in the electoral process.
