Message:

My name is Gabriela A. Velasquez, a long-time Houston resident, mother, artist, and Afro-Latina immigrant. I'm submitting this comment to express my deep opposition to the proposed redistricting in our area.

Our current representative was chosen by us, the people of this district, because they understand our community, our needs, and our values. They have earned our trust by showing up and advocating for those of us who are often overlooked: immigrants, working families, Black and Brown communities, survivors of violence, and people living in poverty.

The proposed redistricting would remove me and many of my neighbors from the district we belong to, a district that reflects who we are. This change is not just about lines on a map. It is an erasure of our collective voice and an assault on our right to fair representation. It breaks the bond between voters and the leader we chose to speak for us.

I urge you to reject this redistricting plan and honor the voices of the people who live here. We deserve to stay whole.
We deserve representation that truly reflects us

Thank you,
