Message:

Can you please stop trying to cut Houston into the spiral pie slices?
It's got literal loops you can go by as guides. That's how houstonians divide themselves anyhow. Cutting it up any differently just makes y'all look ridiculous and shady as all get out.

Same thing with San Antonio and Dallas. Use the roads as guides.
And that mess of a strip you currently have running up 35 looks absurd. why can't you do things fairly?
