Message:

Bring in independent experts to redraw districts in a fair manner.

The proposed map is an obvious power grab that is designed to break apart large cities and give unfair voting power to oversized rural districts.

There is no logical reason to construct a large district that runs from the panhandle to the gulf, other than to counteract the voting power of Dallas and Houston, which have been broken up into small pieces.
