Message:

I am writing today regarding the redistricting plan of the State of Texas and urging you to vote "no" - vote against redistricting. It is time for leadership in this state to do the next right thing. The next RIGHT thing. Redistricting is supposed to be fair and neutral. This is not the case in the State of Texas, and it is shameful. A "yes" vote is a vote for gerrymandering, letting YOU our representatives choose voters instead of letting voters choose who represents them. Redistricting to silence the voices of so many Texans is not the next right thing. Vote "no." Do what is RIGHT. Do not allow Texas to be further manipulated so that one party has an unfair electoral advantage over the other. Let the voices of the people actually be heard through their votes. Do the next RIGHT thing. Vote "no."
