Message:

We should not be further gerrymandering Texas congressional districts. We must resist redistricting that makes Texas less representative and more unfair.

We should not be taking directions from Donald Trump, especially while he attempts to hide his close association with the noted pedophile Jeffrey Epstein. If republicans are worried about midterms, then they should join with the democrats to pass common sense legislation that helps common people.

Make Texas more democratic. Texas should benefit its people, not just special business interests. Do not pass this unfair redistricting.
