Regarding: Congressional

Message:

I strongly oppose the redistricting of Texas' congressional maps. The new map consolidates my hometown and current residence of Austin into one congressional district. This would greatly diminish my ability to be fairly represented in Congress. Redistricting is a blatant attempt to dilute the voting power of Texas Democrats, working class families, and people of color. It is unfair, unjust, and an attempt to gut voting rights here in Texas. This new map does not reflect the will of Texans. It reflects the will of President Trump and the Federal Government. It's such a shame that the Texas Legislature and the Governor's office are willing to bow down to big government. Grow a spine! This is our state, not the Federal government's. Redistricting would be a spit in the face to Texans, Democracy and our Nation as a whole. Please vote "no" on congressional redistricting for the state of Texas.
