Message:

I am opposed to redistricting. As a Texan and veteran I see no justification in the expenditure of our funds and time to bring up redistricting now when we should be laser focused on preventing the next preventable disaster. Yes, preventable. You were given the funding to secure a warning system and chose instead to spend those funds on meaningless things. You can't deny it, it's public record. You have put your politics over Texas lives. To put salt into our mourning souls for those needlessly lost, you are choosing again to put your politics before Texans. I see a President who has intimidated the Texas leadership into carrying out his redistricting ploy to try and stack the votes before the mid-term. This is a desperate and shameful act to bring up now.
