Message:
Dear Elected Officials,

I'm writing to oppose redistricting. I urge the committee to oppose any attempt at mid-decade redistricting, especially while the current maps are still being reviewed in court. Redrawing district lines now feels premature and risks further eroding trust in the process. I'm especially concerned about efforts that divide communities of color in ways that weaken their political voice, something Texas has a long and troubling history of doing through racial gerrymandering and discriminatory voting practices. I believe Texans deserve a redistricting process that is fair, transparent, and inclusive. Not one that is rushed, closed off from the public, and likely to lead to unfair outcomes.

Sincerely,

Dr. Jamie Hughes
