Message:

Political gerrymandering was wrong in 2020, and it is even more reprehensible when done at the behest of a power-hungry wanna-be dictator. Why have Texas republicans sold out the representation of everyday Texans? In the wake of our state's deadly flooding, this special session should be laser-focused on shoring up flood control and weather prediction capacity to protect the people of Texas, not on further reducing their ability to elect decent, law-abiding representation. Y'all should be ashamed for even having this on the ballot. I grew up in a conservative household. Back then that meant efficient government and the people impacted by laws having a say in their creation and implementation. What the hell has happened to the GOP?!
