Message:

As a lifelong resident of South Texas, I am writing to express my strong opposition to the proposed redistricting plans. These maps do not represent our communities fairly and appear to be drawn in a way that dilutes the voting power of historically underrepresented groups.

South Texas is home to diverse, hardworking communities whose voices deserve to be heard, not silenced. Redistricting should ensure fair and equal representation for all Texans, not serve political interests at the expense of the people.

I urge you to reject any map that undermines our democracy and instead support a process that is transparent, equitable, and rooted in protecting voter rights.
