Message:

I and my wife, Zada True-Courage, and many of our San Antonio neighbors are outraged by your and your co-conspirators' efforts to steal more Democratic Congressional seats to support the Texas and national Republican party's hold on power in Washington.

The 2024 Texas Presidential election showed 42.5% of the voters supported the Democratic candidate; therefore, a rational person would believe that 42% of Texas Representation in Congress should be Democratic. But because of the Texas Republican-dominated legislature gerrymandered redistricting in 2021, they have limited Democratic representation to 12 seats out of Texas's 38 seats or roughly 30% of the delegation.

Now, however you want to gerrymander the districts again in the mid-term to reduce the Democratic representation by 5 more seats to satisfy President Trump's demand to have even greater control of Congress, providing Texas voters with only 18% Democratic representation, and you are complicit in this.

This is not governance; it is blatant partisan politics and a power grab. This is unconscionable.

Unless you and your fellow co-conspirators come to your senses, there will eventually be hell to pay politically for all of you.
