Hello Texas Legislature,

Dear Members of the Texas Legislature,

I am writing to express my deep concern and strong opposition to the ongoing efforts by this legislative body to redraw electoral districts in a manner that threatens the integrity of our democratic process.

Redistricting should serve to ensure fair and equal representation for all Texans—regardless of political affiliation, race, or geography. Unfortunately, the current trajectory of these efforts appears aimed at consolidating partisan power rather than upholding the fundamental democratic principle of "one person, one vote." Gerrymandered districts dilute the voices of communities, weaken electoral competitiveness, and erode public trust in our institutions.

As a citizen of Texas, I believe our state's future depends on a transparent, inclusive, and impartial redistricting process. I urge you to:

Halt any redistricting plans that prioritize political gain over fair representation.

Establish an independent, nonpartisan redistricting commission to restore public confidence in the electoral process.

Ensure that communities of interest—particularly marginalized and historically underrepresented groups—are not divided for political convenience.

Voter suppression and manipulation through unfair maps are a direct attack on democracy. Texans deserve better.

I call on you to do what is right—not just what is politically expedient—and protect the voice and vote of every Texan.

Sincerely,
Josh Whitcomb
