Message:

I have lived in Texas my whole life. I lived in TX2nd's gerrymandered district with representatives that did not represent almost half of the people I encountered.

This will make that worse in the name of consolidating power for the Heritage Foundation.

This move is a move of Big Government and will continue to drive me further and further away from the Republican Ideals of my father and his father.

If the Republican's are truly the party of small government, they will take charge of their own state instead of Cowtowing to a wannabe dictator and his cronies.

Do not vote to redistrict. The People will remember your choice
