Message:

Dear Committee Members,

The current congressional districts in Texas are already so erratically drawn. I have lived in Austin since 1985. My congressional representative was originally Mike McCaul, then when I moved to the east side of Austin it was Roger Williams and now Lloyd Doggett. I believe all 3 are still in the House of representatives. I rarely heard from Mike or Roger. Since Lloyd has been our representative I have received regular updates and had 4 opportunities to meet him at community gatherings.

I believe when we were gerrymandered out we were ignored.

Why can't a bipartisan group put together a map that is fair and representative of Texas?

Please heed our requests.

Sincerely,

Karen Swenson
