Message:

As individuals that are supposed to represent the people of Texas, it is reprehensible that you are blatantly attempting to gerrymander districting in Texas to silence the voice of any group of Texas state residents. It is a vile and underhanded attempt to cheat electoral fairness and to stack the Texas government with only individuals that will agree with the current administration's racist, sexist, classist, anti-science, and anti-education stance. If these representatives can win their electoral races without manipulation of the voting pool, then it is obvious that they do not represent Texans in a fair or equitable manor. Nor are their stances or opinions in line with the majority of Texas voters. At its most basic sense this is an attempt to cheat the electoral system and strip people of one of their basic rights. If this process is allowed to continue, the only recourse of the people will be to seek legal action against the legislators involved. As a voter in Texas, this does not represent me or my vote. You swore to represent the state, so represent us instead of your own agenda.
