Message:

As a proud Texan, I am appalled at the efforts by legislators to manipulate state districts to favor one party over the other.

I urge you, as many other Texans have, to remain steadfast to the pledges you made to serve ALL TEXANS — not just those in the party you align with. Representative democracy is the bedrock of our state and our nation, and pursuing this request by our president to ‘find five seats’ is simply undemocratic and unacceptable.

Don’t let this become an autocracy. Be better. Do better. Do not pursue efforts or entertain legislation that sacrifices everything that makes this country great: free and fair elections.
