Message:

It makes no sense to redistrict- unless it is with a census.

I don't want a bill that represents the parties in power instead of the real people.

It is a costly and complicated thing to redraw a district and it only makes sense if it represents real people.

The whole special session seems like a trick to say its about flood mitigation or THC but its really about redistricting. It is a waste of money. The Republicans always pretend they are about saving money or tax cuts but it is always about something else.
