Message:

The piece of Texas history that makes it a special place and a special ideal is its long history of fighting for states rights and the everyday person. Going forward with redistricting our state in the middle of the decade when there are much more pressing matters like proving aide to residents of Kerr County and amping up our warning systems as we move through the rest of hurricane season is not only irresponsible but nearsighted. We will waste funds and resources and manpower to an unnecessary whim when we could be doing what is right for Texans. Trying to silence the voices of Texans is not going bear good fruit for our state or for our nation. I'm respectfully asking for this committee to abandon efforts to redistrict Texas and instead focus on helping prepare for incoming natural disasters.
