Message:

I do not support the mid decade congressional redistricting of Texas. As a geographer, I value census data and see its purpose for redistricting. Redistricting now without all of the data to understand changes in our landscape is not prudent or a good use of the legislature's time. I am an incredibly proud Texan and have been due to Texas's ability to lead change and fuel the national economy. Part of what makes us Texas is our independent and forward thinking as a state. Listening to Donald Trump and doing what he says, "going to grab five seats," should be reason enough to not redistrict. We bow to no kings as a nation, but we CERTAINLY bow to no kings in Texas. Do not support partisan, uncalled for requests from the president no matter who the president is, especially if it seeks to divide us as a state.
