Greetings,

Regarding the topic of REDISTRICTING during this Summer 2025 Special Legislative Session - Community members are fully aware of the fact our representation and districts could unexpectedly and needlessly change over these 30 days.

There are FAR MORE PRESSING matters at stake - some of which are also topics during this special session (flood relief and warning systems, natural disaster preparedness, reducing property taxes, water projects, eliminating STAAR testing to name a few already complicated issues).

Please understand: your constituents' ability to regard our representatives as trustworthy and credible diminishes when you do things like this!

We are aware that districts were only recently revised (2021 session) and a lawsuit over that decision is still undecided. You all know this will only result in more lawsuits.

Please be realistic in what should be prioritized (should be topics that majority of your CONSTITUENTS want addressed) and what is possible in only a short timeframe.

The world is looking to Texas to see how we handle the tragedy that so recently unfolded in Kerr county. Please act in the moral space that self-proclaimed "Christian people" should. There are mothers and fathers grieving needless deaths. Consider them - NOT your own political agendas and whatever pressure you feel from your party members whether that be local, state, or national peer pressure to change our districts to suit your own desires for power.

You are not dictators or authoritarians - please act accordingly.

After all, Redistricting AGAIN is something TAX PAYERS foot the bill for. You erode public trust with irresponsible actions like this.

We are looking at you and holding you accountable. Think 2026 midterms.

We need fair and transparent processes. Texas is a state for THE PEOPLE - not THE WEALTHY AND POWERFUL FEW.

Be Blessed,
Naomi Williams
