Message:

First, I oppose mid decade redistricting in the state of Texas and furthermore, nationally. Second, this is a flagrant attempt to squelch competition and dilute the black and brown vote. This initiative should be removed from political influence and oversight. It is phenomenal that people of color were corraled into certain districts because of discriminatory housing and lending practices called redlining AND now that their neighborhoods are soundly established, it baffles me that yet again, politics dictates black and brown annihilation. Regardless of the Republican intent, it's abhorant. Be fair. Be just. Just do the right thing. Political representation and economic opportunity is a right of all people. Dont stand in the way of black and brown representation. The USA is better than this.
