Dear Elected Leaders and Policy Actors,

I am writing to express opposition to the redistricting. Previously I was a precinct chair (197) in Houston, TX. That precinct will be directly impacted by efforts to redistrict. While I understand the motives by elected officials to pursue this option, I fear that in doing so you further suppress the will of constituents in that community.

I now live in Edinburg, Texas. I can see how redistricting has created a district that stretches from the deepest of the Rio Grande Valley to West of San Antonio. I oppose the redistricting and feels it violates the constitution. I wished your time and efforts were centered on other types of reform that would benefit Texans.

Respectfully,

Rebecca Cole
