Message:

To the members of the Texas Senate,

I am writing to express my deep opposition to any efforts to redraw district lines in a way that silences the voices of voters and manipulates representation for political gain. Redistricting should be about fair representation, not partisan advantage.

Gerrymandering undermines the very foundation of democracy. When maps are drawn to favor one party or to dilute the voting power of certain communities, we all lose — not just politically, but morally. Every Texan deserves an equal voice, and district lines should reflect communities, not carve them apart for short-term power.

We are watching. We will remember who stood for fairness and who did not. I urge you to put the people of Texas first and reject any redistricting proposal that prioritizes party over principle.

Respectfully,
Rebekah Cervantes
