Message:

For the record, I am a registered Republican and have identified as a Republican for many years but I pride myself on voting for both Republicans and Democrats based on what I believe to be the most qualified to serve. The elected Republican leadership of Texas has chosen to pursue the request of the President to consider redistricting in the middle of the decade for one reason only, to ensure political control of our State. I've registered to provide testimony but candidly, I don't know to what we are testifying. No proposed maps have been drawn or presented for consideration. Five years still remain before the next census is taken, so we can at least have a better understanding of how our population has changed to determine if those changes warrant consideration to redraw districts. I have spent most of the past 30 years working closely with our elected leaders at the local level, in Austin and in Washington, and while I have observed efforts by both parties to exert more energy to control public policy, this effort threatens our entire political process and the very definition of a democratic process.

Thank you.
