Message:

I am opposed to the effort to change congressional district boundaries at this time (in the middle of the census period). There is no reason for the Republican majority to tamper with the lines other than to rig the 2026 elections in favor of continuing its majority rule.

It's bad enough that the governor cheated the Houston area of a legitimate vote against the budget bill from its minority population, but now the Republicans are trying to ensure that other minority districts are likewise disenfranchised. It is overt undermining of the electoral process in Texas.
