Message:

I am a disabled combat veteran. I am an attorney. And I am a federal employee. This means that I have sworn an oath many times to uphold the Constitution, formed by and for "We the people." Who is "we the people?" Only rural folks, who believe and think the same way as Greg Abbott and Donald Trump? NO! "We the people" is everyone. It is not only immoral, it is highly hypocritical to engage in this nasty business of gerrymandering. I'm ashamed of you. If you can't win in a fair contest, you don't deserve to represent "We the people." And know for sure, "we the people" are watching what you do. "We the people" will remember. If you redraw the maps, try this for a change: none of these tortured, serpentine nonsense districts. Just draw some circles, perhaps some rectangles. Follow the counties. Have some sense, for God's sake. Garbage governing of this sort makes Texas look bad. Here's a crazy thought: If your ideas are unpopular, get some better ones!
