Message:

To the members of the Texas Congress,

When you are elected into office, are you not supposed to serve the people? Your constituents who are beholden to your actions and decisions?

Then why would someone in public office do something that is so blatantly an affront to voters everywhere in Texas. Redistricting already happens every 10 years, and it leaves the districts such a mess as it is. But to do it early to only gain political advantage in time where the people are in clear civil unrest is disgraceful.

The people of Texas are not simply puzzle pieces to be reshaped and molded into your sick political game. We are people with thoughts, feelings, families, ideals. And we deserve to be heard.
