Message:

Three major points: redistricting is an assault on the voting rights of all Texans. Texas has already been extensively redistricted. Partisan redistricting equals racial redistricting, and this is illegal according to the Voting Rights Act. Furthermore, these hearings are being held without showing Texas citizens what the new maps would look like. Redistricting was not even on the current Texas legislative agenda - it was imposed by Washington D.C. on us suddenly, at a time when we Texans are more concerned about adequate disaster response, education concerns, and health care issues.
